My Respected Friend Nov 17. 1863.

The third Escade of the Am. An. Sla Society is now at hand I hope its arrival will find you in health And that Phoe will feel your presence more welcome than she has done on any former occasions — Ah! m how hard through much, I perhaps I ought not to include myself as I have been one of the least in the great work — Without further comment We in this vicinity have a great desire to hear you Lecture, Are you committed after the adjournment of the Escade Could you make it convenient to visit our place on your return — We are very little out of the route — We should like very much to have your company ~~say~~ two days at least — In case the weather should be good presuming you will accept we will give you one of the largest Halls in the lower end of the County, Mr want the subject of Petitioning to have an impetus Mr will have an admission For the proceeds to be at your disposal; though as Mr are now laboring (and have been since Jay's last) for the Freedmen a part of the proceeds would be very acceptable —

One meeting, or more as you say; on the Sunday following the 4th would do — A social sojourn with us would be very shuring —

Excuse my suming dictation, you make the disposal of your time, Your presence is the great matter —

You may remember you gave us a partial grant some years ago —

Why only thank? I don't know it happened that you have never spoken in our place The Parliques, Abby - 176 Wright, Hudson Pillsbury, O Johnson, Corning, W. W. Brown, Tappan, Lucy Stone, Antoinette, Miss Jones Mrs. Mott, R. Purvis, M. G. H. G. G. G.
And where shall I stop without showing partiality. — Oh those days have past:; how honest, how glowing we were in our enthusiasms.

The "Whirlwind" is now doing the work

Do you suppose that the political incumbents are accurately aware of the labor the Abolitionists have accomplished

Neither are the Military men aware of the stupendous work that has here performed by the Slaves Friends —

In conclusion will you give this request a thought as favorable as possible — Our regards to you all —

Yours
Wm. B. Linton
